

STRAUSBAUGH STILL CRITICAL FROM INJURIES

Dwight L. Strausbaugh, 57, Or-tanna R. 1 fruit grower, remained in a critical condition at the Warner Hospital today.

Hurled from his car when it was struck by a truck at 12:40 o'clock Friday afternoon at the Cashtown intersection on the Lincoln High-way, he is suffering from a frac-tured and dislocated pelvis, frac-tures and dislocations of the spine in three places and all of his ribs on the left side have been fractured.

Persons first at the scene found Mr. Strausbaugh lying in the center of the three-lane Lincoln Highway after his car came to rest on the north side of the highway, headed east. The entire rear window of the vehicle, owned by J. L. Fitz, Or-tanna R. 1, his son-in-law, was smashed out. Those at the scene believed Mr. Strausbaugh was hurled through the rear window by the impact. They held that had he fallen from the left door he would have been pinned between his car and the truck when the two ve-hicles clung together for a period after the crash before moving apart. The door on the right side of the car remained closed during and after the accident.

Truck Driver "Shaken"

Cleveland L. Fleschman, 30, Col-lege Park, Md., driver of the Dixie Plywood Co., Washington, D. C., truck which collided with the Strausbaugh vehicle, was "shaken up" by the experience, but ap-parently not otherwise injured. His truck, after departing from the car, went off the north side of the road and traveled on the berm for about 100 feet before turn-ing south on an arc, then crossed the three-lane highway and came to rest about 30 feet south of the highway, after turning on its right side and smashing in the east wall of a two-apartment concrete block story-and-a-half house owned by Herbert Hall, Naples, Fla. Fleschman succeeded in opening the left door of his car, and climbed upward to get out of the overturned vehicle after it came to rest.

State police estimated damage at $700 to the car operated by by Strausbaugh, $160 to the truck and $5,000 to the house.

Truck Enters Room

Police said Robert Joseph Oyler, 35, 205 Ridge Ave., fruit grower, driving a truck loaded with crates, had pulled into the Lincoln Highway from the Hall apartments where he had been speaking to Paul Holland, Biglerville R. 2, a resident of one of the apartments. Oyler had reached the intersection in his truck, travel-ing east, when he saw the west-bound Dixie Plywood Co. truck and the south-bound Strausbaugh car were about to hit. He was able to stop in time to avoid being involved in the crash.

Holland, who had been talking to Oyler moments before, had gone into his apartment and was in the room adjoining the one into which the truck crashed. The truck was partially in the living room of an unoccupied apartment in the Hall building when it came to rest. It broke off two radiators, putting the heating system in the building out of order.

109 Conewago Twp. Children Get Shots

One hundred nine children re-ceived Salk polio vaccine shots Friday in Conewago Twp.

Dr. Donald Coover, Littlestown, administered the inoculations to the children from the Mt. Pleasant, Sand Hill and Midway schools in Conewago Twp. under a program arranged by William McFadden, principal of the school in coopera-tion with medical officials.

The school nurse, Mrs. Ruth Miller, and state nurse Mrs. Joseph Bushey, aided Dr. Coover in hand-ling the program.

ELECT DARRAH PRESIDENT OF LIBRARY BOARD

William C. Darrah, Gettysburg R. 1, author and lecturer on biology and contemporary civilization at Gettysburg College, was elected president of the board of directors of the Adams County Free Library Friday evening at the annual re-organization meeting.

Mr. Darrah, who was vice presi-dent last year, succeeds Dean Asch-ward of Biglerville, president of the board for the last two years.

C. P. Keefe, New Oxford, was elected vice president and L. S. Long, Gettysburg R. 3, was elected treasurer for another term. Mrs. Mary S. Wilson, the librarian, con-tinues as board secretary.

New Director

Dr. Frank N. Hewetson, Gettys-burg R. 3, attended his first board meeting as a county commissioner ap-pointee, succeeding Mrs. Dora Ford of Hunterstown.

Circulation reports submitted by Mrs. Wilson showed book loans at the main library on E. High St. in January totaled 3,892, one of the highest marks for any month since the library has been in operation. The same month last year showed only 3,066 loans there. Circulation at branches and adult stations for last month also showed a gain over January of last year but school circulation showed a drop that brought the total for the month to 21,431, about 2,000 less than the total a year ago.

Forty-three new registrations of library users were listed during last month at the main library and four more registered at branches. The bookmobile covered 304 miles on its trips last month.

Have 24,512 Books

Financial reports showed that the library has 24,512 books.

Buy Park Area For $28,500

The National Park Service pur-chased 11 of the 13-acre McMillan property on the Gettysburg Battle-field from Mr. and Mrs. William Barriga on Friday for $28,500. Dr. J. Walter Coleman, superintendent of the battlefield, said today. The property lies along Confederate Ave. a short distance from the Fairfield Rd.

The Barrigas purchased 9.73 acres from Miss Margaret McMillan on March 19, 1953, for $15,000. Another area they purchased included 2 acres and 80 perches. A quit claim deed for $1 was also secured.

The transaction was completed by Attorney Chester Ledom, rep-resenting the Department of the In-terior, who presented the check to the Barrigas.

The area purchased surrounds the old McMillan house on three sides. It does not include the dwelling.

The Barrigas retain the home and 2 acres of land. Their area has a frontage on Confederate Ave. of 377 feet and is 233 feet deep.

Under the agreement the Barrigas may not dispose of their property or subdivide it for other purposes. The National Park Service was directed to purchase the property from appropriated funds for the Park Service.

Oppose Gambling And Horserace Betting

A resolution opposing gambling and horserace betting was adopted at the February meeting of the Gettysburg unit of the WCTU Fri-day evening at the home of Mrs. Milton R. Remmel, E. Middle St.

At the business meeting plans were made for the annual treat to guests at the county home to be given next Tuesday. Two new mem-bers were added bringing the unit's membership to 52. A chapter of the study book, "Wake Up or Blow Up," was discussed.

After refreshments and the ben-ediction, the group adjourned to meet in March with Mrs. William Wavell. Miss Martha Lentz led opening devotions.

before an audience on nearly 1,000 persons at the Gettysburg High School auditorium.

The concert will be repeated there this evening at 8 o'clock.

With the big high school stage jammed with a medley of brightly colored uniforms and flashing in-struments, the high school mus-icians from 76 bands in nine counties opened the concert under the bat-ton of Robert G. Zeigler, host band conductor, with the "Star Spangled Banner."

Then Mr. Zeigler introduced Don-ald Mease, Manheim Twp., president of the Pennsylvania Music Educa-tion Association.

JURIST SPEAKS AT DINNER HERE

Judge Chauncey M. Depuy, Chambersburg, will speak on "The Middle East" at a dinner meet-ing to be held by the Public Affairs Committee at the YWCA February 20 at 6 p.m.

Judge Depuy served in France in World War II. He is a graduate of Dickinson College and Dickin-son Law School and since 1956 has been judge of the courts of Frank-lin County.

Interested in international issues since his war time experiences abroad, Judge Depuy is moderator of the series of the Ambassadors Forum held monthly during the winter season in Chambersburg. This forum is open to the public without charge, and is sponsored by the Chambersburg Chamber of Commerce in conjunction with several other organizations. Am-bassadors from the far eastern countries have addressed the forum this season.

Supper tickets for the meeting here may be secured at the YW office at $1 each. Co-chairmen of the committee arranging details of the meeting are Mrs. Albert Bachman and Mrs. J. Albert Blackburn.

Sollenberger Will Attend Conference

Samuel G. Sollenberger, assistant superintendent of the Gettysburg National Park, has been selected by Daniel J. Tobin, director of Region 5, National Park Service, to attend the National Park Service confer-ence on "Park Development" to be held at Yellowstone National Park and Grand Teton National Park, September 10-18. Dr. J. Walter Coleman also will attend.

Mr. Sollenberger has been in government service for 30 years, be-ginning here as a clerk.

BURY MRS. KRISKE

Funeral services for Mrs. Sara Kriske, Hanover, who died Tuesday night at the Georgetown Univer-sity Hospital, Washington, D. C., were held this morning from the Frederick Bucher Funeral Home, Hanover, at 10:30 a.m. with the Rev. Dr. Nevin E. Smith, pastor of the Emmanuel Reformed Church, Hanover, officiating. Interment was in the New Oxford Cemetery. Mrs. Kriske, 61, a sister of Gettys-burg, survives Mrs. Kriske. She was incorrectly listed previously as Mrs. Evelyn Smith.

IKE'S DOCTOR SEEKS A WHALE

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Dr. Paul Dudley White leaves to-day for a remote Mexican lagoon and a hunt, by helicopter, for a whale to wire for sound.

Dr. White, President Eisen-hower's heart specialist, wants an electrocardiogram — a graph of a heart's action — taken from a grey whale.

He hopes a dart, with a wire at-tached, can be fired into the blubbery hide of the 50-foot mam-mal in a helicopter flying low over Scammon Lagoon on the Baja California coast.

The dart, he explained, will be wired to a sea sled. Transmitting equipment on the sea sled will radio the impulses to a shore station. From there they will be relayed back to Dr. White aboard the expedition yacht on the la-goon.

"A one-minute recording is all we need," he explained, "it would provide invaluable data on the spread of electric current as it transver-ses the largest heart muscle ever studied."

START DAMAGE SUIT

Lt. Col. Eben R. Jones, professor of military science and tactics, will present the "Queen" and Lt. Col. Donald G. Williams, professor of air science, will read the citation making the "queen" an honorary Lieutenant Colonel.

Many Army and Air Force officers and their wives will be guests at the ball.

MANSLAUGHTER CASE DROPPED AFTER INQUEST

The charge of involuntary man-slaughter against John Edward "Jack" Hahn, 22, Buffalo, N. Y., as a result of a fatal accident last March 30 which caused the death of Robert Czarnecki, 19, Buffalo, N. Y., was dismissed Friday evening by Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder following a coroner's inquest into the fatal crash.

The coroner's jury implied that at least a partial cause of the ac-cident was the narrow concrete bridge across the Gettysburg-Harrisburg Rd. seven miles north of here near Jacob's chair shop.

Czarnecki was killed instantly by a fractured skull, a broken neck and other injuries when the right side of Hahn's car was stripped off when it struck the east sidewalk of the concrete bridge. The wall is about a foot from the edge of the paved sur-face of the 22-foot road.

Urges Wider Bridges

State policeman J. A. Van Nort, who testified at the inquest held in the courthouse before the county coroner, Dr. C. G. Crist, said the car's right wheels had been no more than a foot off the edge of the paved surface of the road, judging by wheel marks, when the side of the car sideswiped the bridge wall.

The coroner's jury, finding that Czarnecki had come to his death as a result of a collision of a car driven by Hahn with "the sidewalk of a concrete bridge maintained by the Pennsylvania Department of High-ways across Route 15," concluded its verdict by stating: "The jury recommends that the State Highway Department, if possible, widen (Continued On Page 2)

STASSEN WILL SPEAK HERE ON FEBRUARY 17TH

Harold E. Stassen, President Eisen-hower's assistant on world dis-armament, former governor of Minnesota and former president of the University of Pennsylvania, will speak at Gettysburg College on Sun-day, February 17, during the local

Itinerant Arsonist Is Given 7-15 Years In Eastern Pen; Other Sentences Imposed

Joseph George Hayden, 50-year-old itinerant from New York and other places, was sentenced to seven and one-half to 15 years in the Eastern penitentiary by the Adams County Court this morning. Hayden had been found guilty by a jury earlier this week on a charge of arson arising from three fires that he allegedly started in the basement and hallway in the Kendlehart apartments, Chambersburg St.

John F. Shuff, 45, Hanover R. D., father of five children, was sentenced to six to 12 months in the Allegheny County workhouse on a charge of setting up and maintaining a gambling establishment in Berwick Twp., near Abbottstown, along the Hanover Rd. His attorney told the court that Shuff was behind in payments on his house which is scheduled for sheriff's sale next Saturday and that he set up the gambling operation in order to obtain money "in a hurry" in order to pay for the house.

Two Previous Arrests

The court observed that Shuff had been arrested in York County in 1947 for maintaining a gambling establishment and had been arrested in 1953 for working at a gambling place in Harrisburg. The court added, "Apparently this is not a new experience for you and the court wants it understood that it will not tolerate professional gam-bling in this county."

Asked why he had set up the gambling establishment in Adams County, Shuff said he was a native of Berwick Twp. and that his new home was next door to his original home.

In addition to the sentence the court also fined Shuff $300, ordered forfeited to the county $470.25 which was found by police on the dice table when they raided the Shuff home, and ordered destroyed a dice table, 38 dice and other gambling equipment secured in the raid. The court was told 20 men were in the basement of the Shuff home at the time of the raid and that all were from outside the county.

Fruit Worker Jailed

Raymond Williams, 42, Bigler-ville R. D. and Alabama, was sen-tenced to three months in the Adams County Jail starting No-vember 11, the late of his incar-ceration, on a charge of aggra-vated assault and battery.

Cpl. Frank W. Yercavage told the court that Williams was an itinerant fruit worker who was talking to the common law wife of Walter Dixon, another negro itin-erant fruit worker, when Dixon arrived and ordered his wife away and the two men started to wrestle. Yercavage said Dixon and others told him Williams drew a knife and stabbed Dixon in the back of the neck. Williams claimed he hit Dixon with a bottle which broke and caused the cut.

James H. Ritchie, 32, 50 W. Rail-road St., was sentenced to 30 days in jail and ordered to pay the costs on a charge of larceny and was given a similar sentence to run concurrently on a charge of a vi-olating the uniform firearms act and malicious injury to property.

McGee, McSherrytown, as the celebrant. Interment in the church cemetery, New Oxford. Friends may call at the funeral home Monday evening after 7 o'clock. Prayers will be recited Monday evenings at the funeral home at 8 o'clock by Msgr. McGee.

FLOOD DISASTER ADDS $906 TO RED CROSS GOAL

Critical flood situations in Ken-tucky, Virginia, West Virginia, and Tennessee have made it necessary for the American Red Cross to call for an extra $5,000,000 for its disaster relief fund with the result that Adams County's quota for the annual fund raising campaign that will be conducted next month will be increased by $906.

The previously assigned total of $16,699 thus will become $17,605, Chapter Chairman George W. Naugle said today.

Letters to the county chapter from both National Chairman E. Roland Harriman and President Alfred Gruenther have described the critical nature of the vast flood damage and the urgent need for increased fund quotas in the coming campaign.

No Special Campaign

"We are faced with an overall, critical financial situation," Chair-man Harriman wrote. "The board of governors considered two alterna-tives — one, to increase our national fund requirements by $5,000,000 which is approximately 5 per cent (Continued on Page 7)

Code Of Teen-age Behavior Adopted

CEDAR GROVE, N. J. (AP) — Seventh and eighth graders at the grammar school here have proposed a "code of teen-age behavior" in hopes of avoiding "obvious supervision" by parents.

The code bans duncage, except on gym days, ends dances by 10:30 p.m. and advises teenagers to avoid single dating.

The youngsters also agreed to limit phone calls to a "reasonable" 15 to 20 minutes, return at an agreed time from dates and sleep 10 hours a night if they are seventh graders, 9½ hours if in the eighth grade.

Take Advantage Of Reno Restrictions

RENO (AP) — While downtown Reno's evacuated section was under tightest restrictions Thursday a crew of workers calmly began repainting the white traffic lines on Virginia Street.

Glenn Smoot, city traffic engineer, said, "It's a wonderful opportunity. Without any automobiles on the street we can even give it a second coat."

The area was evacuated while crews tested for possible propane gas leaks, such as caused Tuesday's explosions and fire that killed 2, injured 40 and destroyed a business block.

Deny New Murder Trial For Bandit

READING, Pa. (AP) — James W. Redline, convicted of first-degree murder because his partner in a holdup here was shot to death by police, has been denied a new trial.

Judge Warren K. Hess of Berks County Court ruled Thursday that the 31-year-old Allentown man was responsible for the death of Erbor J. Worcesek, also 31 and from Allentown. Judge Hess cited the law which states that a person engaged in a felony is responsible for any death resulting whether or not he did the actual killing.

Some Currencies Hit By Suez Crisis

ZURICH, Switzerland (AP) — The currencies of Russia, Hungary and Egypt have slumped on the Zurich financial exchange as a result of the Hungary and Suez crises.

But the Suez invasion had little effect on the value of the French franc on the Swiss money market and the value of the British pound has increased.

The Israeli pound has dropped less than a fifth. Switzerland has no currency restrictions, and the Zurich money market often is a barometer of the financial and political stability of other nations.

Delay Hearing On Middle East Policy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate hearings on President Eisenhower's Middle East resolution ran behind schedule Friday, and a new Monday goal was set for their completion.

Questioning of Henry T. Byroade, who was U.S. ambassador to Egypt until he was transferred last year, took up the joint committee's entire day yesterday.

Despite the extension of hearings, Chairman Russell (D-Ga.) of the Armed Services Committee told reporters, "I think it still is highly probable we will report some kind of a resolution by the end of next week."

5 Statesmen Named In Lumbermen's Assn.

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — Five Pennsylvanians have been named directors of the Middle Atlantic Lumbermen's Assn., which is holding its annual meeting here.

They are E. G. Chapin Jr., Kingston; Joseph M. Bonnell, Glenolden; William C. Werner, Pine Grove; D. W. Good, Quincy; and Lacey G. Whipple, Laceyville. They were elected Thursday night for two-year terms.

The association represents lumbermen and dealers in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland and the District of Columbia.

SAUD LEAVES WASHINGTON ON WAY TO SPAIN

WASHINGTON (AP) — King Saud leaves Washington today with President Eisenhower's assurance of U.S. help to strengthen Saudi Arabia militarily and economically.

This aid could go, in part, to convert the sleepy Persian Gulf port of Dammam into a bustling center of commerce.

From Washington's National Airport, the 55-year-old Saudi Arabian ruler flies aboard Eisenhower's plane, Columbine II, to the Azores. There, a Spanish plane was to take him to Madrid for a four-day visit in Spain before he goes back home.

Here Ten Days
The King leaves behind what an Eisenhower - Saud communique yesterday called an "atmosphere of cordiality" that far exceeded the expectation of American officials when they invited Saud to Washington. Saud was here for 10 days.

Wrapped up in that communique were these key agreements: 1. Continuation for five more years of the pact under which the U. S. Air Force uses the Dhahran Air Field 1,000 miles from Russia.

2. In exchange, U. S. military aid designed to give Saudi Arabia, in two years, a modern defense force including medium tanks, jet planes and trained troops totaling more than double the present 15,000 strength.

3. Also in exchange for continued use of Dhahran, an economic aid program which would develop Saudi Arabia in a way beneficial to both countries.

4. Opposition by both the United States and Saudi Arabia to any use of force and a pledge to work within the U. N. for Mideast peace.

5. The United States considers Saudi Arabia spiritually, geographically and economically vital. Saud is satisfied with Eisenhower's Mideast plan to block Communist expansion through military-economic support and, in effect, that he will urge his fellow Arabs to back it at an Arab "summit conference" when he returns.

Wedding

French-Hooker

Justice of the Peace Joseph Sunbury, Biglerville, officiated at the wedding of Gertrude I. Hooker, Hornell, N. Y., and Donald L. French, Bath, N. Y., Friday evening at his home in Biglerville. Mrs. Sunbury and Mrs. Roland Graham were witnesses.

News Briefs

HARRISBURG (AP) — State Welfare Secretary Harry Shapiro Friday allocated $5,959,732 in federal aid to general hospitals in Pennsylvania for 1957.

Shapiro said that a slight portion of the money will be used to finance psychiatric units in some hospitals.

MADRID, Spain (AP) — Police and university students clashed in Madrid Friday during a citywide boycott of public buses, street cars and subways. The boycott is in protest against the high cost of living.

About 30 police, with their sticks swinging, charged a crowd of 200 singing students who attempted to march down a main street. The students scattered. Several were arrested and some suffered pounded heads.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower probably will hold separate talks soon with French Premier Guy Mollet and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan in a move to reunify the Western Powers.

Diplomatic sources said the conferences now are being planned. They would be the first top level meetings among these Western leaders since cool relations developed last fall over the British-French invasion of Egypt.

PORT-AU-PRINCE, Haiti (AP) — Haiti finally has a new provisional president after a five-day crisis. The Legislature picked Frank Sylva, lawyer and presidential candidate, in defiance of constitutional requirements.

Sylva, an authority on constitutional law, succeeds Joseph Nemours Pierre-Louis. He was forced out Sunday by the current popular procedure of ousting presidents by means of a general strike.

Reopen Some Reno Evacuated Sections

RENO, Nev. (AP) — Several blocks of Virginia Street — main street of this gaming and divorce center — reopened Friday after being closed following Tuesday's gas explosions and fires.

The reopened section contains Reno's largest hotel, the Mapes, two banks and many shops.

Half of the evacuated area was opened last night.

An accumulation of leaking propane-air gas exploded Tuesday, killing two persons and injuring 40. Five buildings were destroyed. Indications of a new gas concentration were found later in an old irrigation canal in the Sierra Street block, between Virginia and Allen. That area remained closed last night.

bridges such as this one so that the wall will not be so close to the paved highway, or at least place reflectors or warning signals to show that the road, in effect, narrows at the bridges.

Hahn, Leo Stephen Zadon, 19, Buffalo, N. Y., and Officer Van Nort, now stationed at York, were the only witnesses before the jury.

Was Only Driver
Hahn said he and four other sailors from the USS Valley Forge, a carrier, left Norfolk, Va., about 3 o'clock on the afternoon of Friday, March 30, on the 640 mile trip to Buffalo for an Easter vacation. They were to return to their ship at Norfolk the following Monday.

Hahn said he was not sleepy or tired, but had asked the other four passengers about an hour before the accident whether any could drive in case he needed a relief driver. None of the other sailors could drive, they told him.

He said he never knew how the accident occurred. "I didn't know the car had gotten off the hard surface of the highway and was on the berm. I thought I had the car under control."

In College Now
Officer Van Nort said the tire marks showed the right wheels of the car had been on the berm for a distance of 67½ feet before the auto hit the bridge. The vehicle scraped along the bridge for 19 feet, then traveled 99 feet further, turning around, and coming to rest headed south off the west side of the road.

Hahn is now a student at a state teacher's college in New York. Zadon, still in the Navy, is at the Naval Hospital at Philadelphia, still recuperating from injuries suffered in the accident. He is wearing a brace on his right leg, and was in a body cast until December. He suffered concussion, fractures of the nose, back, right upper arm and right thigh and a contused chest in the crash.

Zadon said he was asleep after the car left Gettysburg, after making a stop near here. The next thing he knew, he said, he awakened to find the entire right side of the car gone, and the other sailors were out of the vehicle. Zadon said he was semi-conscious for about three days at the Warner Hospital here.

The jury for the inquest included Harold Ecker, J. Fred Schultz, G. Henry Roth, Herbert Taylor, Elizabeth Bollinger and Pauline Taylor.

Need More 'Egg-head' Help, Governor Says

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Gov. Leader said today "let's have more" of what he termed "egg-head" government in Pennsylvania.

"Only by joining political responsibility with superior intellect and knowledge can we hope to raise our civilization to a higher plateau," he said.

Leader made the statement in a speech prepared for delivery at commencement exercises of the University of Pennsylvania.

The governor, who is a Penn. alumnus, and Chief Justice Charles Alvin Jones of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court, both received honorary degrees of doctor of laws from the university's president, Dr. Gaylord P. Harnwell, who presided at the midwinter graduation exercises. More than 500 students received undergraduate degrees.

The FBI Story

CHAPTER 30

The Sum-Up: A Case for Liberal Logic

by Don Whitehead

When President Theodore Roosevelt ordered an investigative force organized in the Department of Justice in 1908 to combat the land thieves, the "trusts" and other federal law violators, there were dark warnings that the move was leading to political espionage and the suppression of civil liberties.

And almost half a century later the question was being heard at times: "Is it true there is danger the FBI will become a Gestapo?"

Sometimes this question was asked for political purposes. Often it was asked by Communists and their sympathizers with the deliberate intent to create suspicion and fear and to undermine the FBI's position. But there can be no doubt that the question was asked in some instances because the American people knew little about the "mystery" organization called the FBI.

Absurd Comparison
The Gestapo was Hitler's secret police system which had the power to make arrests, hold prisoners incommunicado, make searches without warrants, execute without trial, and persecute anyone whose political thinking and racial background didn't conform to the Nazi ideology. It was the twin of the secret police system of Soviet Russia and her satellites.

To compare the FBI with these foreign police systems is as absurd as to compare the independent judiciary of the United States to the courts of the Soviet Union. No one who studies the FBI operation from the inside — reading the orders from J. Edgar Hoover to his agents, leafing through the policy directives, and watching the transformation of a politically corrupt agency into a force struggling to achieve an ideal — can come to any other conclusion but this:

Here's Why
The FBI cannot become a repressive arm of government or of a clique as long as — — the President of the United States is a man who rejects the idea of a secret political espionage system.

— the FBI is manned and directed by men of integrity who respect the spirit of the law as well as the words.
— establishing innocence is as important as establishing guilt in agents' investigations.

— Congress watches the FBI's spending and operating policies with a critical eye and the Budget Bureau continues to keep a close check on how and why the FBI spends its money.

— the judicial branch of the government remains free to question investigative procedures in all criminal proceedings, to review the evidence gathered by agents, and to protect the rights of the accused by due process of law.

— the nation's press has the freedom and courage to expose wrongdoing.
— The Bureau is kept free of politics.

Story of America
But there is one condition under which the FBI could become a "Gestapo." This could happen if the traditional checks and restraints were corrupted or eliminated by a dictatorial government, and the FBI were then used as a political tool.

The history of the FBI, in reality, ty, is the story of America itself and the struggle for an ideal. It isn't perfect, but it has made progress in giant strides, and it's incomparably better than it was 30 years ago.

One of the strengths of the FBI has been in the continuity of its leadership, which has meant a continuity of policy. The basic policies established by Hoover under the direction of Harlan Fiske Stone in 1924 have remained unchanged. Hoover has remained at the helm of the FBI through and into the administrations of five Presidents and eleven attorneys general.

Intellectual Antagonism
Since 1924, when Hoover was appointed director, the cost of operating the FBI has totaled $983,179,844 while fines, savings and recoveries have totaled $1,390,093,138. In other words, the FBI balance sheet shows a net profit of $406,913,294. In addition, a total of 157,110 fugitives have been arrested and 228,087 convictions have been recorded in cases investigated by the FBI.

In looking over the years, one interesting strand of the story has been the FBI's relationship with some of the liberals and the intellectuals during the Bureau's fight against communism. By all logic, the liberal intellectual should have stood shoulder to shoulder with the FBI in its fight to expose communism as the most reactionary and imperialistic movement the world has ever known.

Many liberal intellectuals did stand by the FBI. But among others there was antagonism. The myth was born that an attack on communism was an attack on freedom of thought.

The record suggests that many intellectuals have not been willing to face up to the cold truth, which is this: Communism is the brain child of the intellectuals — Marx, Engels and Lenin — and not of the tolling masses. Communism didn't spring from the workers as a liberal movement for personal and intellectual freedom.

Red "Scientific" Mind
Communism is a brilliantly thought out plan to destroy the old world and build a new one in which "The Party" will be the central, all-powerful brain ruling the world's millions. It is a dictatorship by the "scientific" mind, which uses the workers as a means to an end. Marx and Lenin and those who followed them understood this well.

The top command of the FBI has no illusions that communism can be destroyed in the United States by the investigation, prosecution and conviction of Communist Party leaders who conspire to overthrow the government by force and violence. That is mere ly one phase of the job. The FBI knows that the bigger job lies with the free world's intellectuals — the philosophers, the thinkers wherever they may be, the professors and scientists and scholars and students.

FBI Agency of Justice
America's top labor leaders have never had any illusions about communism. They have fought the Communists in their ranks for years. These leaders know that wherever communism has taken over a country, the "tolling masses" have lost their rights and whatever chance they had for personal dignity.

The record seems crystal clear. Communism was conceived by reactionary intellectuals and communism must be destroyed by liberal intellectuals. The liberal intellectual can and must reach the mind of men with a counter-logic to communism, with a logic which restores man's faith in himself, his free institutions and the ideal that personal freedom and government by law shall not perish from this earth.

In the whole struggle, the FBI represents the people's effort to achieve government by law. It is an agency of Justice. And the FBI in the future will be as strong or as weak as the people demand it to be. No more. No less.

County Native Is Promoted At Lehigh

Dr. Raymond R. Myers, research assistant professor of chemistry at Lehigh University, has been promoted to research associate professor of chemistry, according to an announcement by Dr. Harry A. Neville, vice president and provost. The appointment was effective Feb. 1.

A son of John C. Myers, New Oxford, Dr. Myers was graduated from New Oxford High School. He received his A.B. degree from Lehigh University cum laude in 1941. After receiving his M.S. degree from the University of Tennessee in 1942, he spent four years in the Central Research Laboratories of Monsanto Chemical Company and four years in a similar capacity for Jefferson Chemical Company, before returning to Lehigh University where he received the Ph.D. degree in 1952. He remained at Lehigh as a research associate and in 1953 became a research assistant professor of chemistry, teaching elementary, physical and graduate inorganic chemistry.

PAST GRANDS HOLD MEETING

The 258th meeting of the Adams County Past Grands Association was held on Thursday night with Valley Home Lodge No. 740, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, Fairfield, as the host lodge. Roy King, York Springs, president, presided. The session opened with the group singing of "America," accompanied by Mrs. Naomi C. Schwartz, Littlestown. James Myers, Fairfield, gave the invocation.

Russell Kennedy, Fairfield, district deputy grand master, announced that a school of instruction will be conducted in York Springs on February 21; in Littlestown, Feb. 25; Gettysburg, Feb. 26, and Fairfield, Feb. 28. A class of candidates, to be known as the "Governor Leader Class," as the governor is joining the lodge, will be initiated on Saturday, March 2, in Harrisburg.

The lodges discussed a visit to be taken to the Odd Fellows Home in Middletown, next summer, when a program will be presented. The tentative date was set for June 23 or 30. It was also announced that a tri-county banquet of the Odd Fellows of Adams, York and Cumberland Counties will be held on Saturday, March 30, in Hampton.

Refreshments were served by the host lodge, during the social hour. Edgar Glenn, York Springs, showed a film on farming. The Odd Fellows will meet again on Tuesday, March 5.

FINAL CONCERT

tors Association, sponsors of the annual district festival, who conducted the band in a lively march, "Salute to PMEA."

Rehearsal, Tour, Banquet
Prof. Middleton, assistant professor of music at West Chester State Teachers' College, took over for the remainder of the program that included Wagner and Mendelssohn with Frederic Grofe's lively "Mississippi Suite" and a vigorous "Fandango" by Perkins. An overture by Rossini introduced the second section of the program. There was Irish music by Anderson, a sprinkling of marches and a rendition of Freidmann's "Slavonic Rhapsody No. 2" that made the already popular "Stars and Stripes Forever" by John Philip Sousa almost an anti-climax.

Prof. Middleton said the band's ability reflected good training in their school groups and "shows they're smart to begin with." He paid tribute to the band instructors in the area for the music program they are presenting through the schools.

After the concert the band posed for its official pictures and then went to the school cafeteria for dancing to the music by a Biglerville dance band. As president of School, Sidney Steiner was master of the host band of Gettysburg High of ceremonies during the dance.

There were more rehearsals this morning, a battlefield trip this afternoon, the annual banquet this evening at 5 o'clock and then the final concert.

BOY SCOUTS, LEADERS ARE ROTARY GUESTS

The Boy Scouts and leaders of Littlestown Troop No. 84 were guests of the local Rotary and Lions Clubs at a dinner and program on Thursday evening, held in St. John's Lutheran Church social hall. One hundred ten persons were in attendance.

An interesting program was presented by the Indian Lore Club of the Lancaster YWCA, under the direction of Dick Rainer, as Great Chief White Owl. The Club was organized in 1953, through the inspiration of Chief Sunrise, a Sioux Indian from South Dakota. The Club is composed of boys from age 9 to 15. All costumes worn by the members are Indian style, without the help of sewing machines, snaps, zippers or buckles. The wearing of the costumes must be earned by the boys. The entertainment included the staging of beautiful and descriptive Indian dances, each accompanied by a historical sketch of the background of the dance. During the year past, over 400 dances were presented in this territory and throughout the state, as well as in New Jersey and Maryland.

Have $300 So Far
Charles E. Ritter was chairman of the evening's program committee; he is also chairman of the troop committee of Troop 84. Rotarian Ritter spoke briefly regarding the work of the Scouting program, calling attention of the fathers of the boys, to the need for their sons' help in Scout work. He also announced that over $300 was received in the drive for funds in the Black Walnut District.

Lion James U. Bowers led the group singing, and Lion Herbert J. Sell was the piano accompanist. Craig Zumbur was a guest of his grandfather, Rotarian J. Ray Reinhold. Lion visitors were Richard Wareham, Norman Myers and Robert Renshaw of the New Windsor Club. Paul R. Snyder, president of the Rotary, extended greetings to all assembled.

The next regular meeting of the Rotary Club will be held on Tuesday at 6:15 p.m. at Schott's Hotel. The Public Information Committee, consisting of P. Emory Weaver and Theron W. Spangler, will be in charge of the program. The Lions Club will have its dinner meeting on Thursday, Feb. 21, 7 p.m., at St. John's. The Lions Information Committee, composed of Charles E. Tressler and John W. LeGore, will be in charge of the program.

Preliminary plans for the annual spring horse show were discussed at the February meeting of the Carroll-Adams Riding Club, Inc., held on Thursday evening in the club house at "Sunset Hill Farm," near town. Thomas L. Cookson Jr. was appointed show chairman, and Ivan Arentz, co-chairman. Mrs. Patsy Crouse is chairman of the show program committee.

The session was conducted by the president, Wilmer Barnes. Melvin L. DeGroot was elected treasurer to fill the recent vacancy of that office. Mrs. Thelma DeGroot, secretary, reported. The following were appointed to serve as the farm committee for the year: Lawrence Haines, Lewis Lippy, Oscar Seltz and Harry DeGroot. Plans were made to have a trail ride on Sunday, Feb. 17, leaving at 12:30 p.m. from the club grounds, along the Mill Rd.

The members decided to have a flag pole erected on the club grounds. Ralph Copenhaver was named to be in charge of the project. Four guests presents were introduced: Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Clapsaddle, "Little Valley Ranch," Gettysburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Dean Helman, McConnellsburg. Following the business, slides of scenic views from the western states, taken by a member on a recent trip were shown. Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Clyde W. Crouse and Thomas L. Cookson Jr.

The club will meet again on Thursday, March 7, in the clubhouse. The refreshment committee includes Ralph Copenhaver, Harry DeGroot and Glenn E. Crouse.

Dr. Potter To Speak
Dr. Leonard L. Potter, local physician, will be the guest speaker at the monthly meeting of the Junior Women's Club of Littlestown on Thursday, February 14, 7:30 p.m. in the high school cafeteria on Maple Ave. "Health" is the theme of the February program, which is in charge of the cheer committee, Mrs. Laverne P. Louey, chairman. Guest Night will be observed, and each member is asked to invite a guest to attend the meeting with her.

Noah Strevig and George Strevig will be in charge of the program at the February session of the Men's Brotherhood of St. John's Lutheran Church on Monday, 7:30 p.m., at the church. Refreshments will be served by Wilson P. Greene, Edwin L. Harget and Malcolm E. Hess.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Ritter and son, William, and daughter, Gaynelle, and her mother, Mrs. H. S. Crouse, moved on Friday from 101 S. Queen St. into their newly built home at 515 Glenwyn Dr.

HUNTING AND GOLF ON IKE'S LIST TODAY

THOMASVILLE, Ga. (AP) — For vacationing President Eisenhower it's quail hunting or golf today — or maybe both.

The President flew in from Washington late yesterday for his fourth February stay in a row at the big plantation estate of Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey, his host. He may stay about 10 days.

The smiling Chief Executive, accompanied by Mrs. Eisenhower, got a warm welcome as he motored through the crowds at nearby Moultrie, Ga., where his plane landed, and here at Thomasville.

Allens Are There
Here along with the Eisenhowers, Humphrey and his wife are the first lady's mother, Mrs. John S. Doud of Denver, Maj. Gen. Howard M. Snyder, the White House physician, and Mr. and Mrs. George E. Allen of Washington and Gettysburg.

They were accompanied from Washington by John Hay (Jock) Whitney, wealthy New York financier who is the new ambassador to Great Britain, and his wife, and William E. Robinson of New York, president of the Coca-Cola Co.

The Whitneys are staying at their own plantation home, Greenwood, located not far from Thomasville.

TEN YEARS AGO
All Officers of B & P Club Are Re-elected: Miss Dorothy Andrew, president of the Business and Professional Women's club of Gettysburg, and other officers of the club were re-elected at a dinner meeting at 6:30 o'clock Thursday evening at the YWCA. Other officers re-elected were Miss Carolyn Rupp, vice president; Mrs. Mildred Benner, secretary, and Mrs. Elizabeth Jackson, treasurer. Mrs. Helen King presented the report for the nominating committee.

Miss Staub And C. A. Brame Jr. Wed Thursday: Miss Dorothy Marie Staub, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Staub, Fairfield road, became the bride of C. Arthur Brame Jr. son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Arthur Brame, Lincolnway east, in a ceremony performed Thursday evening at 6 o'clock in the rectory of St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church. The Rev. Fr. Mark E. Stook officiated at the single ring ceremony.

The couple was attended by Miss Louise Hemler, Lancaster, cousin of the bridegroom and Donald E. Staub, brother of the bride.

Mrs. Johnson Is First President Of G.S. Council: Mrs. C. Harold Johnson, East Broadway, was elected first president of the Adams County Girl Scout Council Friday evening at a meeting establishing the council.

About 100 leaders from 19 troops in the county met at St. James Lutheran church Friday evening to adopt a constitution for the council, name officers for the forthcoming two years and then voted to petition the national Girl Scout organization to present a charter to the Adams County group.

Other officers named were Mrs. J. Walter Coleman, Gettysburg, R. D., first vice president; Mrs. Raymond M. Hale, Arendtsville, second vice president; Miss Kathryn Oiler, Gettysburg, recording secretary; Mrs. R. C. Lighter, Buford Avenue, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. P. J. McGlynn, Biglerville, treasurer.

Directors named at the same time include Mrs. Archie Rohrbaugh, New Oxford; Mrs. L. F. Eisenberger, Gettysburg; Mrs. Harvey Raffensperger, Arendtsville; Miss Mary Rita Redding, Littlestown; Miss Hilda Dutta, Littlestown; William H. Snyder Jr., New Oxford; and John Fidler, Biglerville.

Gettysburg Hi Girl Wins Pie Baking Honors: Goes To Chicago: Miss Betty Lee Dorsey, 15-year-old Gettysburg high school sophomore, who resides on Gettysburg R. 1, will represent Pennsylvania in the National Cherry Pie-baking contest to be held by the National Cherry Pie committee at Chicago February 21.

Miss Dorsey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Adams, won the state contest Saturday afternoon at Biglerville high school with the third cherry pie she has ever baked.

Mrs. Fred Haehnlen Fractures Ankle: Mrs. Fred Haehnlen, 329 North Stratton street, received treatment at the Warner hospital today for fractures of both bones of her left ankle received when she fell down the cellarsteps at her home this morning.

New Oxford Tax Rate To Jump: The budget for the borough of New Oxford for the fiscal year of 1947, drawn up by the finance committee at presented at the monthly meeting of the council of Monday evening in the borough hall, is based on a tax rate of 15 mills for general purposes. This represents an increase of five and one half mills over the nine and one-half mill rate which has been in effect since 1938.

Sergeant Raymond Strohm Of ROTC Staff At College Retiring After 30 Years: Almost 30 years of service in the United States army will come to an end March 30 for Master Sgt. Raymond Strohm, East Middle street, member of the ROTC staff at Gettysburg college.

Today's Talk

SLEEPING INTERESTS
How wonderful it is that there are some people who almost immediately stir us and arouse our interests! And there are books that create this effect. I came across this interesting saying by F. P. Adams: "I find that a great part of the information I have was acquired by looking up something and finding something else on the way."

We always have sleeping interests that are aroused by some chance remark by someone else, by the reading of something in a publication or by attempting something and then running into an idea that diverts our attention to something more interesting and important.

Recently I went to a book where I knew I would find something I wanted to know. But before I knew it I was sitting on the floor of my library reading something far more thrilling than what I had started to find out! I ran into a regular nest of sleeping interests.

The scientist is forever running into these sleeping interests. They keep his mind in tune and prod him to new discoveries. It takes a keen mind to be ever alert to new ideas and new discoveries and to gain the enthusiasm to make them his own. Many of our great discoveries have been those that were asleep somewhere.

The story goes that Newton was taking a nap under a tree and suddenly an apple dropped and waked him. This set him to thinking, and so the law of gravitation was discovered. Here was an example of the discovery of a great law that had been sleeping for centuries! What a multitude of interests still sleep!

People who keep waking up sleeping interests and making them their own are the happy and efficient people.

Just Folks
TRIUMPH
There are various kinds of wealth:
And the best of course, is health.
Close contender for the second,
Friendship always must be reckoned.

There is willingness to work;
Success is oft denied the shirk.
To the youth goes highest pay
Who will readily obey.

Who shows willingness to learn
Will in time promotion earn.
Men will quickly seek him out
If he knows what he's about.

Though the upward way is hard,
Against skill it's never barred.
And the one who will not stop
By and by may reach the top.

It's by serving every need
Men eventually succeed.
But the weary, quick to rest,
Never seem to do their best.

Actually he concluded his duties which include 15 years of service as an assistant instructor in ROTC units February 1 and on February 3 began a term on leave that will conclude March 27. He will then return to duty here for three days after which he will be officially retired from the army. Strohm came here September 16, 1937, to begin almost ten years of service with the Gettysburg ROTC unit. Prior to that, from 1931 to 1937 he was stationed at Valley Forge Military academy doing similar work.

Young Looter Takes Cake And 88 Dollars

SUNLAND, Calif. — "Nice day," said the little boy who was sitting on the doorstep, eating a piece of cake, when Mrs. Evelyn Way came home.

"Nice day," Mrs. Way agreed. Then she went inside. She found: Eighty-eight dollars was missing from her purse.

A freshly baked cake was missing from her kitchen. Her dog was locked in the bathroom, eating a piece of cake with which he evidently had been lured there yesterday afternoon.

Too late Mrs. Way remembered the doorstep.

The little boy was gone.

Seek To Restrict Reporter's Passport

BUDAPEST — U.S. authorities Friday pressed an American reporter who recently visited Red China to hand over his passport so it could be marked for return trip to the United States only.

The reporter, William Worthy, said he had not yet made up his mind what to do but he still had the passport.

"I want to build up the best possible case for a fight to make it possible for American reporters to go anywhere they have to go to report the news," he said.

Worthy, 35, is a correspondent of the Baltimore Afro-American. He was one of three newsmen who went to Communist China despite a U.S. State Department ban on travel there.

Stassen Will
In an attempt to dump Richard M. Nixon, Mr. Eisenhower's choice for a running mate.

Movement Flopped
Stassen failed to receive any encouragement or support. Heretofore denied any affiliation and nominated Nixon at the San Francisco convention. Stassen, heading a lost cause, managed to persuade the Republican chiefs, at the last minute, to allow him to be one of those who seconded Nixon's nomination.

After the election Stassen again broke into the news when he said the Republicans would not have lost control of Congress if Nixon had not been the vice presidential nominee.

Dr. Albert T. Mollegen, professor of New Testament literature and language, at Episcopal Seminary, Alexandria, Va., will also speak during the local observance.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Spence, Mr. and Mrs. John Crowther and daughters, Jean and Janet, Washington, D. C., spent Sunday with the former's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Chapman.

Mrs. Edith Stoner was hostess to the Margaret Donaldson Bible Class of the local Methodist Church at her home Wednesday evening. During the program the third and fourth chapters of Mark were studied. A reading, "A Little More and a Little Less" was given by Mrs. Ruth Spence. Mrs. Mary Tressler, teacher of the class, read an article entitled "You Have Three Choices." There were 10 members present. Mrs. Paul Thomas Sr., Hanover, and Mrs. Paul Thomas Jr. and son, Mark, York, were guests. Refreshments were served and a social hour held. Mrs. Beulah Bleeker will be hostess to the group at the March meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Burtner, Keedysville, Md., visited Sunday with their son and daughter-in-law, the Rev. and Mrs. Roger Burtner, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Thomas Jr. and son, Mark, York, spent Wednesday with Mrs. Thomas' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tressler. Mrs. Thomas and their son will stay here for the remainder of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Weaver, Hagerstown, spent Wednesday with Mr. Weaver's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Pepple, and son, Lowell.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kane have moved from the former Mervin Mickle property to the Kane farm on Orrtanna R. 1, the former Walter Dentler farm, vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Brewbaker and son, Merl, who moved to the Kermit Deardorff farm, Biglerville R. 2.

Arrest 32 Rebels In Border Raid
BUDAPEST — The Communist government's Radio Budapest announced, Thursday that police arrested 32 persons in a raid in the small town of St. Gotthard, near the Austrian border.
The prisoners were charged with antigovernment activity, hiding of weapons and aiding anti-Communist refugees to flee the country.
Despite strict armed controls, several dozen persons a day are still getting into Austria. Closing the southern border has reduced, but not completely stopped, escapes into Yugoslavia.

Mrs. Beulah Bleeker will be hostess to the group at the March meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Burtner, Keedysville, Md., visited Sunday with their son and daughter-in-law, the Rev. and Mrs. Roger Burtner, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Thomas Jr. and son, Mark, York, spent Wednesday with Mrs. Thomas' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tressler. Mrs. Thomas and their son will stay here for the remainder of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Weaver, Hagerstown, spent Wednesday with Mr. Weaver's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Pepple, and son, Lowell.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kane have moved from the former Mervin Mickle property to the Kane farm on Orrtanna R. 1, the former Walter Dentler farm, vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Brewbaker and son, Merl, who moved to the Kermit Deardorff farm, Biglerville R. 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Baker, Baltimore, spent Sunday with Mrs. Baker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Wetzel, here, and with Mr. Baker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Baker, Gettysburg R. 3.

Those perfect in attendance during January at the Orrtanna Primary School were Fenneth McDannell, James Sterner, Donald Haines, Susan Rebert, John Barry Fitz, Harold Naugle, Shirley Naugle, William Sell, Sandra Spence, and Michael Wyatt. The teacher is Sara Miller.

Perfect in attendance at Orrtanna Grammar School in January were Donna Mummert, Linda Staley, William Shriner, Louise Graff, Shirley Kauffman, Sandra McClellan, Nancy Naugle, Patsy Naugle, Constance Kauffman and Susan March. Those having perfect attendance during the first semester were: Shirley Kauffman, Nancy Naugle, Patsy Naugle and Constance Kauffman. Gladys Walter is the teacher.

Cousins' Goal Gives Bullets 54-52 Win Over Lehigh 5 At Hershey; Lions Here Monday

Big Tim Cousins, Gettysburg College's 6-8 center and probably the fastest improving member of the squad, connected on 15-foot goal in the final three seconds to give the Bullets a thrilling 54-52 victory over Lehigh in the opening game of an all-collegiate doubleheader in the Hershey Sports Area Friday evening before about 2,000 fans. Elizabethtown laced Lebanon Valley 79-60 in the second game.

Cousins led all scorers with 25 points and kept the Bullets in the thick of the battle all the way. Bob Roepke swished 24 for the Engineers.

With a minute and half remaining, the Bullets trailed 51-50. Cousins drew a foul and landed both shots to put Gettysburg in front 52-51. A short time later Dan Nolan of Lehigh made good on one of two free tosses to knot the score.

Strategy Works
The Bullets gained possession and waited 57 seconds for one shot and the strategy paid dividends when Cousins landed his spectacular heave, a one-hander while falling forward.

Big Tim landed his nine goals on but 12 tries and had a perfect six-for-six from the free throw lane. Gettysburg was on top 26-22 at half time.

It was the second victory for Gettysburg over Lehigh this season and boosted the Bullets' record to 6-13.

Albright, recent conquerors of Franklin and Marshall, comes here Monday evening. The freshmen teams will play the preliminary at 6:45.

BIG EVENTS IN GARDEN TONIGHT

NEW YORK (AP)—Olympic 800-meter champion Tom Courtney will try to do the "impossible" and beat Arnie Sowell to the tape in the half-mile — the most interesting of a fistful of top events — tonight in the 50th anniversary of the Millrose Games in Madison Square Garden.

It Courtney or Sowell really turn on the heat, this race could overshadow two other features, the mile pitting Ron Delany, Ireland's Olympic 1,500-meter winner, against Hungary's Laszlo Tabori, and the two-mile in which pint-sized Fred Wadner will try to lower Horace Aschenfelder's 8:50.5 world indoor record.

All the years Courtney has been racing Sowell, he has beaten the skinny Pitt runner indoors just once. That was in a 1,000-yard race in Washington two years ago. And Sowell tripped on one of the turns.

Charlie Jenkins of Villanova is the choice in the 600, Bob Richards (one of four 15-footers) in the pole vault, Ira Murchison of Chicago in the 60-yard dash, Lee Calhoun of North Carolina in the 60-yard hurdles, and Phil Reavis of Villanova in the high jump.

Martinez Romps Over Courchesne

NEW YORK (AP)—If Isidro Martinez can keep up the pace of his first two U.S. fights, the nimble little man from Panama is going to force his way into the feather-weight sweepstakes.

Martinez, 22, won in a romp last night at Madison Square Garden, brushing off a second-round knockdown, to stop Bobby Courchesne in 32 seconds of the 10th and last round. On Jan. 4, Martinez upset Ike Chestnut.

The tournament to crown a successor to Sandy Saddler, who now is thinking of returning to the ring at some future date, already has been set up by Miguel Berrios boxes Carmelo Costa March 22 and the winner takes on Hogan (Kid) Baisey of Nigeria for the right to fight France's Cherif Hamia for the 126-pound title.

Give 'em a record home crowd and the Rochester Americans, hottest draw in the American Hockey League, can't be beat it seems.

The Americans proved for the third time in three months last night. A crowd of 7,203—largest ever to see Rochester play at home—watched as the fourth-place Americans walloped Buffalo 6-3 to move within two points of second-place Cleveland.

A wave of upsets struck the top teams in the Adams County Basketball League Friday evening but the league-leading Biglerville quintet, despite a loss to East Berlin, held onto its one game lead.

Gil Lupp's Indians shattered the Canner pressing game with a fast break to stun the leaders at East Berlin 47-42. East Berlin hopped off to a 12-4 lead in the opening period and led the rest of the way, fighting off a desperate rally by Biglerville in the final period. The setback snapped an eight-game winning streak for the Cannons. Charlie Chronister and Charlie Wolf each landed 13 points for the winners. Ten Biglerville players scored with Don Bowers leading the pack with 11.

Big Spring was held to seven goals but landed 26 of 45 free tosses to Bolling Springs 40-35 on the Bubbler court. It was the third straight setback for the county champions who had previously won 65 straight regular season league games. Big Spring trailed 15-13 early in the second period but then jumped out in front 19-17 at half time and led by as much as 10 points in the third frame. With but three minutes remaining the Bubbler had fought back to within two points but Ben Wheeler landed a goal to wrap up the outcome. Ben Griffe swished 16 points for the winners while Howard Peterman netted 13 for the losers.

New Oxford Jolts Bolts
New Oxford prevented Littlestown from moving into undisputed possession of second place with a surprise 55-48 triumph on the Bolts' court. A big second period gave the Colonials a 30-21 lead at half time and they held on to their lead the remainder of the game. Noel Taylor rimmed 17 points for New Oxford and Al Snyder led Littlestown with 18.

After being held to a 16-15 edge at half time, York Springs turned in a 40-point second half to crush invading Fairfield 56-40. George Williams, Jimmy Cashman and Bob Weigle looped 20, 16 and 13 for the Springs. Jimmy Musselman and Ken Kuykendall sank 18 and 12 for Fairfield.

The Fairfield High girls' undefeated basketball team downed York Springs 43-24 in the latter's court Friday evening to go into a tie for first place in the county league.

Next Friday Fairfield plays at Littlestown in the final game of the season and the winner of that game will clinch the title, now held by Littlestown.

In recording their nine straight of the season the Fairfield girls led all the way by a comfortable margin. Dottie Myers and Nina Shank netted 25 and 15, respectively for the winners. Rosie Ensor collected 15 for York Springs.

Boston's winning streaks in the National Basketball Assn. get smaller and smaller.
Early in the season the Celtics chalked up 10 in a row. Later on they put together an 8-game streak. Last night their latest streak was stopped at four.

The New York Knicks turned the trick 92-90 in the first game of an NBA doubleheader at Philadelphia. In the second game the Philadelphia Warriors nipped the St. Louis Hawks 93-90.

Also: Lee Marshall's 40 points led Washington and Lee to an 89-70 triumph over Davidson and The Citadel staged off a late comeback to down VMI 78-70 in Southern Conference action; Syracuse's second half upset toppled Holy Cross 82-66; Siena posted a 68-62 verdict over Army; Arizona defeated West Texas 77-67; Stanford prevailed over Washington State 60-51 and Southern California nipped Idaho 89-88.

YOU'RE THE MANAGER
(Eleventh of a series)
By BEN OLAN
For the past eight seasons, Gus Zernial of the Kansas City A's has been one of the American League's leading sluggers. He has hit 198 homers and batted in 658 runs.

In 1956, however, Zernial played in only 109 games — several as a pinch-hitter — and had only 16 homers and 44 runs batted in.

Here's a situation in which Big Gus was the central figure. Manager Lou Boudreau used some excellent strategy. Put yourself in Boudreau's place and decide what you would have done.

The Yankees and Athletics are deadlocked 7-7 in the top of the ninth at New York. Reliever Tom Morgan (R) is pitching for the Yanks as Enos Slaughter starts the inning for Kansas City with a double to left field. Zernial (R) is the next batter with Harry Simpson (L) and Hector Lopez (R) to follow.
Would you:
a. Order Zernial to sacrifice?
b. Put in a pinch-hitter for Zernial and order him to sacrifice?
c. Let Zernial swing away?
d. Let Slaughter try a steal of third?

Result: A — Zernial bunts and catches the Yankee infield napping. He reaches first base safely while S

Zettle Tells How To Avoid Damp Brooder House Litter; Urges Early Soil Testing

By FRANK S. ZETTLE
Adams County Farm Agent

Damp litter in brooder houses may result from overcrowding, shortage of litter material, poor ventilation, spillage from water fountains or poor litter management.

Since these are all phases of management correcting the cause will bring desired results. Carelessness in filling water fountains, spilling water from pails in carrying it from pen to pen may be contributing causes. Condensation of moisture in the air of the brooder room sometimes wets the litter in cold weather. This may be caused by too great an increase in ventilator or window openings, and to cold air under single wood floors of colony brooder houses.

Condensation is less of a problem with a double, insulated type of floor. A good plan is to change the ventilation gradually to meet changes in outdoor temperature. Start with two to four inches of finely cut litter on the brooder house floor. Stir it at least once a day so the heat of the stove and air of the room can help keep it dry. Wet spots are usually found where most chickens sleep, and about the feeders and waterers. When the litter becomes damp or excessively dirty remove it. If the litter stays dry, and is kept bright and clean by frequent additions of new material, and the chicks are doing well, there is little to be gained by frequent cleaning. With good management, many poultrymen clean litter only after the chicks have been moved to range or larger pens.

Calves In Separating Pens
If you're keeping your young calves in individual pens, you're right on the bandwagon. But did you know one of the main reasons for keeping them in their own individual pens, is to prevent the calves from suckling each other? Even early suckling can cause permanent damage to the mammary system. Many two-year-old heifers that freshen with one or more blind quarters were injured in this manner during the first three months of life.

The habit of suckling other calves is formed during the time when the calf is being fed milk, and for about two weeks thereafter. The solution to the problem is either to separate the calves during this eight to ten-week period in individual pens, or restrain the calves for an hour or so following each milk feeding. You can do this with stanchion like devices. The actual method of feeding milk isn't important; you can feed either from an open pail or a nipple.

Individual pens have proved to be mighty good investments on many dairy farms. They are of great value in preventing the spread of calfhood diseases and they facilitate the proper feeding of calves. At about ten weeks of age, you can stable your calves together in larger pens with from six to six calves per pen.

Take Soil Tests Early
Indications are that the Pennsylvania State Soil Testing Laboratory will receive about twice as many soil samples for testing this spring than for previous springs. So you'd better get your sample taken, and in early, if you want a prompt report. Right now isn't too soon if the ground isn't too frozen to let you take an accurate sample.

We have distributed twice as many soil test kits since July than were sold last year during the same period. Only about forty per cent of the kits have been received at the Penn State Soil Testing Laboratory. Even so, twice as many soils were analyzed during October, November, and December of 1956 than for the same period in 1955.

Always, the bulk of soil samples is received at the laboratory in March and April. The same thing will probably happen this coming

Basement Heat Can Give Seeds Pre-Season Start

The extra heat in your basement can give you a head start of several weeks on a flower or vegetable garden.

Gardeners, knowing that heated basements themselves are bad places to start seeds growing, frequently overlook the possibilities of funneling warm basement air into an outside hot-bed.

Long before it is safe to sow them outdoors, seeds will flourish in a hot-bed. The ideal location for it is against a basement window with a southern exposure. Dig a foot-deep excavation of the size desired for the hot-bed. Build a frame which will overlap the basement window by about three inches when placed tightly against it. The sides must slant sharply from above the window to within a few inches of the ground.

The top can be a standard type hot-bed sash, or even an old window or glass door. Be sure that the frame fits tightly around the top, which should be attached by hinges. This permits you to raise the top when circulation is needed.

Bank earth around the frame to keep out the cold and make the entire structure as tight as possible to ward off winds. To do this, it may be necessary to caulk the frame where it joins the foundation of the house.

This gives you a functional bed for pre-season planting which can be heated simply by opening the basement window around which the frame has been built.

The window is left open on sunless days and at night. When the seeds are getting enough heat from the sun beaming through the glass top, the basement window can be closed.

While the average temperature in basement window hot-beds is lower than in other types, what heat there is distributes evenly and ventilation is excellent. However, care should be taken to prevent drafts and there should be good ventilation on warm days. Ventilation should be cut to short periods in cool weather.

BUDAPEST (#) — Communist-ruled Hungary today opened its first public martial law trial against a couple accused of killing a member of their band of freedom fighters who gave information to the Russians.

The trial began in a tiny courtroom of the Municipal Court Building. It was not known how long it would last.

spring, and it will mean that the laboratory will be overburdened. To take advantage of fertilizer recommendations as indicated by soil tests, you should sample your fields to be planted this spring just as soon as the winter freeze breaks. An early test will assure an early return of test results.

Do's and Don'ts

By ANDREW C. LANG

DO IT YOURSELF ALUMINUM

DO . . . use ordinary woodworking tools, with a few exceptions, in working with do-it-yourself aluminum.

DO . . . back all aluminum sheeting with a block of scrap wood when drilling holes, which can be done with a hand drill, a brace and bit or a power drill.

DO . . . prevent the clogging of a file with aluminum grit by using a long-toothed, single-cut file and cleaning the teeth with a file card or brush frequently.

DO . . . saw this type of aluminum with a hacksaw (when cutting rods, bars and tubes), with a coping saw (to make irregular cuts) and with any kind of power saw (to do any kind of cutting).

DON'T . . . place aluminum tubing in a vise without using something to protect the metal surface from being marred.

DON'T . . . try to form sheet aluminum with a hammer unless you are attempting to get a hammered effect (planishing); a rubber or other soft-faced mallet will prevent the metal from being damaged.

DON'T . . . neglect to use rust-proof screws, rivets or other fasteners.

DON'T . . . forget that an antique effect can be obtained on embossed aluminum by painting it and then, after the paint is dry, rubbing it with steel wool.

DO . . . know that select lumber has a minimum of defects and usually is used for quality work. While common lumber, although it does have defects, is suitable for general all-around purposes; also, there are different grades within each of those categories.

DO . . . keep in mind that the size of lumber is set at the mill before it is surfaced and therefore comes to you with slightly smaller dimensions; a 2 by 4 is closer to 1 7/8 by 3 5/8 inches than it is to 2 inches by 4 inches.

DO . . . remember that the hardwoods (birch, maple, oak, walnut, hickory, elm, etc.) come from trees with broad leaves which are shed seasonally, while the softwoods (pine, fir, spruce, redwood, etc.) come from the evergreen type of trees with needles.

DO . . . ask the advice of your lumber dealer when you are faced with a problem — but not when three or four other customers are clamoring for his attention on a busy Saturday.

DON'T . . . forget that you can sometimes save considerable time and money by slight changes in the dimensions of your project to fit standard sizes of lumber, thus eliminating much cutting and keeping waste to a minimum.

Good Water Well Supply Is Important

What steps should you follow to get a dependable, adequate and pure well water supply for a home beyond the water mains?

The National Water Well Association suggests the following six-point guide as a help to homeowners planning to install their own water systems:

1. Add up the total amount of water needed daily for all uses, both inside and outside the home. This is important for correct pump sizing.

2. Get as much information as possible about the underground water table in the area where you plan to buy or build.

3. Choose a well drilling contractor with a reputation for bringing in wells that give long years of trouble-free service.

4. Keep Accurate Log

4. Find out what regulations apply locally on such related matters as proper well construction, location, and pump housing.

5. Ask the contractor who drills your well to give you an accurate log of the boring at the time the well is completed. The log should cover depth and thickness of the various layers of drift, rock, shale, and the like encountered during drilling; results of pumping tests; size of well casing and screen; and indicated water yield per hour. You'll need to know the latter, of course, before you select your pump.

6. Have the well chlorinated before use, and always after repairs have been made. Check bacterial content at frequent intervals, to make certain that the well remains safe. The National Water Well Association reminds homeowners that drilled wells are the safest, because they tap the deepest water sources, where contamination from surface seepage is the least likely to have occurred.

Canned tomatoes taste good added to a chowder of fish, potatoes and onion. Add a chunk of butter before serving, if you want to enrich the soup.

You know the WALL FLOWER. She sits on the sidelines watching others dance.—Or, maybe she's just studying. Thinking about construction. If that's the case, her thoughts just naturally turn to properly graded crushed stone. Where can she get it? Just call Teeter.—You can, too.

News Briefs

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Barrett (R-Wyo.) said Friday oil industry spokesmen may be able to "make a showing" for price increases wholly aside from effects of the Suez Canal closing.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A Philadelphia court has been asked to keep a divorced father from letting the children of his former wife associate with the children of his present wife.

MOSCOW (AP)—A Soviet order expelling two more American military attaches will have little practical effect except as propaganda. One has already left the country and the other has transfer orders.

The Russians ordered out Marine Capt. Paul R. Uffelman, 31, Fort Wayne, Ind., and Navy Lt. William S. Lewis, Guthrie, Okla. The United States said they were attacked by a crowd in Leningrad Jan. 25 and subsequently detained in a Leningrad police station despite their diplomatic immunity.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Poland's Communist government will send a mission here to negotiate for about 100 million dollars in credits to buy American machinery, cotton and other goods.

BOSTON (AP)—Prof. Zechariah Chafee Jr., 70, associated for 40 years with Harvard's law faculty and an ardent champion of civil liberties, died Friday in Massachusetts General Hospital. He suffered a heart attack at his Cambridge home Sunday.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The Israelis took a defiant attitude Friday toward an Arab-Asian decision to seek U.N.-backed restrictions against Israel.

Israeli sources said the 80-nation General Assembly could vote all the restrictions it wants, but Israel will keep her troops in the Gaza Strip and along the Gulf of Aqaba coast until Egypt gives guarantees of peace.

POINT OF THE MOUNTAIN, Utah (AP)—Investigators descended on Utah State Prison Thursday in the wake of a 12-hour riot among more than 500 inmates.

The probes surveyed what Warden Marcel Graham termed "several thousand dollars' worth of damage and listened to 'suggestions' from the quiet convicts.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sale of stations WRAC-AM-FM-TV, in Williamsport, Pa., to WGAL, Inc., for $125,000 was authorized Thursday by the Federal Communications Commission. The purchasing company is owned chiefly by the J. Hale Steinman and John F. Steinman families, which have large newspaper and broadcasting holdings in Pennsylvania and Delaware.

By LEONARD A. UNGER
HARRISBURG (AP)—Floor Speaker W. Stuart Helm (R-Armstrong) said Friday a Republican program to balance the commonwealth's 1957-59 budget will be designed so that no Democratic help will be needed for enactment.

HARRISBURG (AP)—Commonwealth employees were under notice from Gov. Leader today to take no other jobs conflicting with their state duties.

"Anyone who has conflicting activities that interfere with his state job will be asked to resign or be dismissed," the governor told his weekly news conference Thursday.

FT. MEADE, Md. (AP)—The storybook life of Wynn Murray is ended at the age of 35.

The successful musical comedy performer who gave up his career after marrying a soldier suffered a heart attack Wednesday night while watching television at her home on this Army post. She was the wife of Maj. William A. Rau.
